

Tuesday 1st

All Saints' Day

One family, we dwell in him, one Church, above, beneath, though now divided by the stream, the narrow stream of death.

Charles Wesley

Wednesday 2nd

Send us to those who mourn, to bring joy and gladness instead of grief.

Let thy spirit of infinite joy fill, strengthen and uplift me.

We pray for our enemies, and those who wish us harm, that you will turn the hearts of all to kindness and friendship.

Tuesday 8th

Thank you God that you declare me worthy, and that you love me unconditionally; help me, Lord, to do the same for myself and for others.

Wednesday 9th

Dearest Lord, Reveal to us today the tenderness and the depths of your mercy - the mercy that reaches down to me wherever I am, whatever I've done, and however I'm feeling.

Thursday 10th

We pray for all those who have experienced trauma, that they will feel safe and protected. May they know that you, God, are the ultimate refuge and safe place.

God of salvation, help us to use the freedom you have given us to light up the lives of people in need.

SUNDAY 13th

Remembrance Sunday

God help us, who today remember the cost of war, to work for a better tomorrow; and, as we commend to you lives lost in terror and conflict, bring us all, in the end, to the peace of your presence.

Monday 14th

Dear God, You only have good plans for me. Help me to do my part. May I be filled with love for you; because to love you is to do your will.

Tuesday 15th

Father, help us to wonder at the simple gifts you have brought to our lives; to come to you as children, full of unbridled faith, safe, known and loved by you.

Wednesday 16th

O grant me, heaven, a middle state, neither too humble nor too great; more than enough for nature's ends, with something left to treat my friends.

David Mallet

Lord for those of us who are lonely bring the comfort of closeness into our lives. For those of us who are not lonely, help us to see those who are, and help us to reach out to them.
